PC-7

This image shows a sheet of handwriting practice paper. At the top right corner, there is a small white rectangular label with the handwritten text "PC-7" in blue ink. The main body of the page is filled with ten sets of horizontal lines, each set consisting of a solid top line, a dashed midline, and a solid bottom line, providing a guide for letter height and placement. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page.

This image shows a sheet of handwriting practice paper. At the top right, there is a white rectangular box containing the handwritten text "PC-12". Below this box, the page is filled with a series of horizontal lines designed for writing practice. The first line is a solid blue bar. This is followed by a set of three lines: a solid blue line at the top, a dashed blue line in the middle, and a solid black line at the bottom. This pattern of three lines repeats ten times down the page. The final line at the bottom of the page is a dashed blue line.

Handwriting practice paper with 15 sets of lines. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed midline, and a solid bottom line. The area between the dashed midline and the solid bottom line is highlighted in yellow.
